

WATG Summer Scholarship Rubric

Applicant _____ Hometown _____ Program _____

	EXCELLENT 6	VERY GOOD 4	KEEP TRYING 2	MISSED THE MARK 0
Applicant's background and advanced education needs	This application contains detailed information about the applicant's background and advanced education needs.	This application contains information about the applicant's background. The applicant mentions advanced education needs but does not describe them in detail.	This application contains some details about the applicant's background. Supporting details about advanced education needs are not included.	More details about the applicant's background are needed in order to understand his/her current situation and advanced education needs.
Description of program and explanation of need for financial assistance	The applicant has clearly described the proposed activity/course and explained how it meets his/her needs. It is clear how/why this scholarship will make participation possible for this applicant.	The applicant has included some details about the proposed activity and has made an attempt to explain how the activity meets his/her needs. The applicant includes some details about how this scholarship will make participation possible.	The applicant has included few details about the program are included in this application. This applicant has expressed interest in attending because it is fun but has not clarified how this activity will meet his/her needs. It is not clear how this scholarship will make participation possible for the applicant.	This application lacks details. It is unclear why the applicant wishes to attend this activity. The application does not attempt to explain how this scholarship will make participation possible.
Effort	Great care and effort was put into this application. The applicant has clearly taken this task seriously, and all aspects of this application are high quality. Written text is original, and all images and sounds are copyright free or cited correctly. Multimedia features are thoughtfully edited and produced.	The applicant put forth effort to make this application very good quality. All written text is original and all images and sounds are copyright free or cited correctly.	More effort is needed to produce a high quality, well edited application. Either text or multimedia need more thoughtful editing to create a high quality production.	Attention to detail would improve the quality of this application by making it presentable and error free.